

HERO OF MY STORY

It can be hard to share Jesus with family because they know so much about us. Let's use this outline to help us write out our faith story with Jesus as the hero. Read the beginning of each paragraph and take a moment to write out your story. If you don't have a story, use the back of the worksheet to write some questions you might have about having a relationship with Jesus.

1. I am a follower of Jesus, and I would like to tell you why. I have learned that we all need to be saved, because we are broken by sin - and not just in a physical way but a spiritual way. Here is what I learned about my sin and why it is a problem:

2. I realized I was lost and broken because:

3. God created us all and loves us so much. He knows that we are broken and cannot fix ourselves, so He sent His Son Jesus. This is what Jesus did for me so that I would not be separated from God:

4. When I understood all of this for the first time, I realized I needed Jesus and wanted to follow Him. This is how I began my relationship with Him:

5. My life today looks different than before I started following Jesus. Here are some of the biggest things He has done in my life since:
